FAQs

What is included in the Kilimanjaro trekking package?

The package includes all TANAPA national park conservation and camping fees, rescue insurance, licensed Wilderness First Responder head guides and assistant guides, porter crew, private chef, 3 freshly cooked hot meals daily, high-altitude 4-season expedition tents, private portable chemical toilet tents, emergency medical oxygen, and round-trip airport transfers.

Can I customize my mountain trekking itinerary?

Yes, all our Kilimanjaro routes are flexible. We can add an extra acclimatization day (highly recommended for higher summit success), organize private climbs for solo hikers or groups, and arrange customized pre-trek hotel stays in Moshi or Arusha.

What should I pack for the Kilimanjaro climb?

We suggest a 4-season sleeping bag (-10°C to -15°C rating), broken-in waterproof hiking boots, moisture-wicking thermal base layers, a fleece mid-layer, windproof/waterproof Gore-Tex outer shell, trekking poles, warm gloves, headlamp, and high-altitude UV sunglasses.

Is travel insurance necessary for high-altitude trekking?

Yes, comprehensive travel insurance with high-altitude trekking evacuation coverage up to 6,000 meters above sea level is mandatory before embarking on Mount Kilimanjaro or Mount Meru.
